[3]

*You're aware, I hope, how I have been devoted
How I've really come to love my alpha male
When you feed me and we take walks in the moonlight
My emotions shoot way up on the canine scale
I squat and squirt with new-found joy
No cat, no squirrel can e'er annoy
A happy tail I do deploy
And my doggie life's just fine*

[4]

*But you have to stop this chasing after beagles
And dallying with whippets on the sly
The shepherds, pugs, and pit bulls are a no-no
Run away if a sassy pup gives you the eye
A Saint Bernard or beeshon freezy
Might make you think that cheating's easy
My fangs would make them both all queasy
So they'd better stay away!"*

[5]

*In the silence then she turned to watch the moonlight
But her accusations stung me to the core
All those other mutts had been less than a flirtation
So I raised my hand to heaven and I swore:
"No other dog I'll e'er go near
I'll shake no paw, I'd scratch no ear
If it isn't yours, my doggie dear
My heart is yours alone!"*
