

A SONG FOR ULSTER (WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?)

(1)

I sing of a wounded land
Where blood was shed too freely
In vengeance for distant days
And hatreds never-ending
A victim of strangers' greed
And the cruelty of princes
A land without equality
Denied both peace and justice

(Chorus)

*But where do we go from here?
Who has the answer?
Long years of hate and fear
Won't vanish in a morning -
Where do we go from here?*

We worked hard for jobs and votes
And decent living standards
Not willing to be second class
Right here in our own country
But guns, bombs, and mortar shells
Only made another's heroes
The blood that was spilled for either cause
Was all the same damned color

*But where do we go from here?
Is there an answer?
The chance is ours to take -
We must find a solution!
Where do we go from here?*

(3)

But dark night is ending now
Good men are cheering daybreak
When families can live in peace
And work to build the future

A SONG FOR ULSTER
(WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?)

I pray that I live to see
An end to all divisions -
An Ireland united, free,
All blessed by God's protection

*But where do we go from here?
We have the answer!
Leave useless sorrows far behind
And together build a future*

*That's where we go from here
That's where we go from here!*
