

MY LAGAN LOVE

Ulster traditional
6th string = D

Andante (mm=80)

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in the key of D major (two sharps) and common time. It consists of six lines of music. The first line begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The second line is marked with a measure number '6'. The third line is marked with a measure number '11'. The fourth line is marked with a measure number '16' and a mezzo-forte (mp) dynamic. The fifth line is marked with a measure number '21' and a forte (f) dynamic. The sixth line is marked with a measure number '25' and contains a 'harm.' (harmonics) instruction with a dashed line. Dynamics in the sixth line include mezzo-forte (mf) and piano (p).

Another gem in what James Joyce called "the old Irish tonality" collected in Northern Ireland by Herbert Hughes. It is included in his volume Irish Country Songs.

The River Lagan rises in the mountains of County Down and flows through the city of Belfast into the Irish Sea.
