I don't recall exactly which blizzard this tune is named for - we don't get them all that often on Cape Cod, but when we DO get one, it can be an interesting experience for a few days. Fair play to the local authorities - they usually get the roads back to almost normal within a day or so (power outages maybe not so quickly).

Update: since this tune was composed, we've moved into a condo community, which means that somebody else gets to do the digging out. And we even have a fireplace to help keep warm in case the power goes out!
