Musical score for 'The Black Road to Loughrea (reel)' in D minor, 4/4 time. The score consists of four staves of music. The first two staves are the main melody, and the last two are a bass line. Chords are indicated above the notes: Dm, Am, Dm, Am, Dm in the first staff; Dm, Am, Dm, Am, Dm in the second; F, Dm, F, C, Am, Dm in the third; and F, C, Dm, F, C, Am, Dm in the fourth.

A salute to the musicians of East Galway and their great D minor tunes. The name refers to the road that crosses the mountains between Ballinakill and Loughrea - as lonely a stretch of road as I've ever driven on. That was years ago - even in these days of ubiquitous smartphones, Onstar, etc., you certainly wouldn't want to get a flat tire up there!
