The image shows a musical score for 'The Castle View Jig' in 6/8 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first two staves are the main melody, and the last two staves are a variation or a second part of the tune. Chord annotations are placed above the notes: Am, Em, G, Am, G, Em, Am, Am, Em, G, Am, G, F, Em, Am, Am, Em, G, D, Am, G, Am, Am, Em, G, Am, G, F, Em, Am.

Our friend Seán O'Driscoll, a fine banjo & box player, lived in Minneapolis for a while but is now back in Cork. Seán grew up in Blarney in a house called "Castle View", apparently because you can't see the famous castle from it (at least I couldn't, but maybe I wasn't looking in the right direction). But it's a good name for a tune. (Travel tip: Blarney Castle is worth a visit, but never EVER kiss the famous Stone. You've been warned!)
