

The Derry Lass (reel)

© BB 2005

We're all familiar with the hardships endured by the emigrants who came from Ireland to these shores in the 19th century, but imagine what the trip must have been like for a teenaged girl travelling with an older brother. My great-grandmother Annie made the crossing from Derry to Montreal and eventually wound up in Pennsylvania, all before she was twenty.

X:072

T:Derry Lass (reel), The

C:© BB 2005

F:072derry_L

L:1/8

M:4/4

R:reel

Q:180

K:A

"A" A2 Bc eaec|"Bm" BF~F2 "E" EGBG|"A" A2 ce "F#m" faec|"D" dAFA "E7" GABG|

"A" A2 Bc eaec|"Bm" dB~B2 "F#m" cBAF|"A" E2 AE "D" FAdf|"E7" edBG "A" A4 :|

"A" efag agfe|"F#m" cefe fecB|"A" A2 Bc eaec|"D" df "A" ec "E" B4|

"A" efag agfe|"F#m" cefe fecB|"A" c2 de "D" fgaf|1 "E7" edBG "A" ABcd :|\

[2 "E" efge "A" a4|]