Musical score for "Hold the Fries!". The score is in G major and 6/8 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first two staves are the melody, and the last two are the bass line. Chords are indicated above the notes: G, D, G, F, Dm, G, F, C, G, C, Am7, G, F, Dm, G.

We know we should say this a lot, but we don't. Do broccoli and cauliflower (yuck) really make us happier and/or healthier? What the heck are triglycerides anyway? Do nachos have any food value at all? Are triple-glazed chocolate doughnuts really nature's perfect food? I NEED ANSWERS!! (While I'm waiting, double-size that order. . .)
