The image shows a musical score for the reel 'Rockcorry Depot'. It consists of four staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The notes are written in a treble clef. Above the notes are various chords: D modal, C, Am, D, C, D, A, D, Am, Bm, Em, A, D, D, Am, G, D, Bm, C, D, A, D, Am, G, D, Bm, G, A, D. Some notes have a tilde (~) above them, indicating a grace note or a specific articulation. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Rockcorry is a town in Co. Monaghan that I had reason to believe (wrongly) was the birthplace of my great-grandmother. The depot is the old railway station out in the country, now used by a local farmer for storage - the railroad is long gone.
