The first time I ever encountered one of those six-foot sandwiches was at a party/session at box player Loretta Egan's apartment in Manhattan many years ago. I can affirm that there wasn't any kind of cheese, cold cut, or salad that wasn't represented somewhere in that sandwich. (The music was pretty good too!) I last saw Loretta when she was visiting the Cape a few years back and stopped in to play at our session. She's always welcome!
