The image shows a musical score for the piece 'Snowy Road to Mick's (slide)'. It is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 12/8. The score consists of four staves of music. Above the first staff are chords: D, F#m7, A7, and D. Above the second staff are chords: D, F#m7, G, A7, and D. Above the third staff are chords: Em, D, D, G, D, and A. Above the fourth staff are chords: Em, D, Em, A, and D. The music features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some slurs and ties. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

To commemorate a never-to-be-fully-explained trip to Mick Cronin's farm in the wilds of Sliabh Luachra. Ostensible purpose: to deliver a bag of Latino vegetables and a carton of assorted fermented spirits being sent by Mick's brother Johnny in Brooklyn. Additional details are available (to adults only) upon request. "From a Kerryman in New York to his brother," I told the agriculture inspector at the airport when I arrived in Ireland. "Right so!" says he, and he waved me through without even checking the packages. (Airport security wasn't as big an issue in those innocent days. . .)
