The musical score is written in D major (one sharp) and 12/8 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff has chords D, F#m7, A7, and D. The second staff has chords D, F#m7, G, A7, and D. The third staff has chords Em, D, D, G, D, and A. The fourth staff has chords Em, D, Em, A, and D. The music is a simple melody with eighth and quarter notes, and it ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

To commemorate a never-to-be-fully-explained trip to Mick Cronin's farm in the wilds of Sliabh Luachra. Ostensible purpose: to deliver a bag of Latino vegetables and a carton of assorted fermented spirits being sent by Mick's brother Johnny in Brooklyn. Additional details are available (to adults only) upon request. "From a Kerryman in New York to his brother," I told the agriculture inspector at the airport when I arrived in Ireland. "Right so!" says he, and he waved me through without even checking the packages. (Airport security wasn't as big an issue in those innocent days. . .)
