The image shows a musical score for 'The Tawnamullagh Jig'. It is written in D modal, 6/8 time. The score consists of four staves of music. Above the first staff, the mode 'D modal' is indicated. Above the second staff, the chords 'D', 'C', 'D', 'C', 'D', and 'D' are indicated. Above the third staff, the chords 'D', 'C', and 'C' are indicated. Above the fourth staff, the chords 'D', 'C', 'D', 'C', 'A', and 'D' are indicated. The music is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#).

This tune was composed in honor of Mayo melodeon player Alan Morrisroe, who has done such a great job of collecting old tunes that might otherwise have been lost. I transcribed many of these tunes from Alan's 2007 CD 'Irish Melodeon Masterpieces' and they are in the webABC MVBT2 folder. The title of this tune is the name of a townland near his native Swinford.
