

McDermot Roe (air)

Carolan

"Among Carolan's many distinguished friends and patrons, no one was more generous and loyal than Mrs. McDermot Roe, of Alderford House, County Roscommon. At the outset of his professional career in 1693, it was she who equipped him with a horse and an attendant harper; and it was to her hospitable home he directed his feeble footsteps in his declining days. Exceptionally honored in death, Carolan's remains were interred near the family vault of his benefactress."

N:The Chief must have missed this piece when he was compiling his earlier selection of Carolan airs (in "the 1850"). It's interesting to note that his spelling of the family name there is always "McDermott" (two t's).
