

Nelson's Hornpipe

"This tune is a variant of 'The Cloone Hornpipe' published in 'O'Neill's Music of Ireland' and 'O'Neill's Dance Music of Ireland'.

It was obtained from Sergt. James Early who learned it from his tutor on the Union Pipes 'Old Man' Quinn. Like many other fine tunes it was anonymous, so it was named 'The Cloone Hornpipe' in honor of the famous piper's native town and parish in County Leitrim, Ireland.

Its continued popularity is evidenced by its inclusion in a recent Irish Collection under the identical name invented for it by its sponsor, Sergt. James Early of Chicago."
