McCRORY

(Pete St. John)

I [1] TOOK THE [5] TRAIN TO [1] BELFAST FIRST [1] TIME IN [4] FIFTEEN [1] YEARS TO SEE MY [5] FRIEND Mc [1] CRORY TO [4] HAVE THE CRAIC AND THE [5] BEERS NO- [1] STALGIA [5] MADE ME [1] MELLOW AND [1] WHISKEY [5] BROUGHT THE [6m] TEARS WHEN THE [1] BARMAN [5] SAID "Mc- [1] CRORY? HAVEN'T [4] SEEN HIM [4] ROUND IN [1] YEARS..."

WHERE ARE YOU NOW, McCRORY? WHERE IS THIS FRIEND OF MINE? THE HARD MAN WHO ONCE SANG 'THE SASH' IN SASKATCHEWAN'S COLD CLIME? WHERE IS THE PRODDY-WODDY WHO TOOK THE PLANE WITH ME FAR AWAY FROM BELFAST DAYDREAMS IN THE YEAR OF SIXTY-THREE ... ?

I THINK OF YOU, McCRORY -WE COULD NE'ER SEE EYE TO EYE WHEN WE TRADED FRIENDLY INSULTS WE WERE NOT AFRAID TO CRY THE PAPIST AND THE PRODDY AND ALL WE HAD WAS SNOW TWO IRISHMEN SO DIFFERENT IN A LAND WE DIDN'T KNOW ...

- "WELL, HE'S BEEN GONE SINCE EIGHTY" SAID A DOCKER DRINKING BREW - "ON A PROMISE TO AUSTRALIA THERE WAS NO ONE LEFT HE KNEW! THE GUNS AND BOMBS FAIR BROKE HIS HEART NEVER KNOWING RIGHT FROM WRONG I DROVE HIM SILENT TO THE STATION THERE WAS MORE THAN McCRORY GONE"...
